The Visionary Behind DAO1 & Architect of a Global DeFi Empire

🔥 800,000 sales partners. 4 million customers. Billions in sales. 32 years of experience. An entrepreneur who changes markets. 🔥

Dirc Zahlmann is one of the most impressive entrepreneurs in the field of blockchain, FinTech and sales. His path to success is a story of visionary thinking, unwavering execution and global impact. He is one of the few who understands both the classic financial world and the crypto and DeFi revolution – and actively helps to shape it.

He has built distribution systems in over 100 countries, has been instrumental in scaling several companies to over one billion in annual revenue, and has led a platform with over 800,000 active channel partners worldwide.

But his goal is even bigger: DAO1 will become the world's leading decentralized platform that combines crypto, trading, AI, and network marketing into a single revolutionary ecosystem.

Dirc Zahlmann – An entrepreneur who sets standards

Over 30 years of experience & groundbreaking successes:

- Active in network marketing since 1993 – built up a team of over 20,000 partners in its first year.
- Developed and scaled over 1 million channel partner structures – with sustainable, profitable business models.
- platform with over 800,000 active channel partners worldwide (GSB, Metaverse & crypto sector).
- 5 companies scaled to over one billion in annual sales – a success that is unparalleled worldwide.
- Served over 4 million customers worldwide & founded or acquired over 30 platforms.
- Built one of the largest Bitcoin mining companies ("Blackbox Mining") in the USA.
- A leading player in crypto, blockchain & tokenization for over 14 years – from the early days to today's DeFi revolution.
- Owner of a family office in Switzerland, specializing in crypto regulation & digital asset management.
- Co-founder of Crypto Valley Partners – a global platform that connects banks, investors & blockchain experts.
- Strategic advisor to banks, investment funds & governments in the field of blockchain & digital financial systems.
- In 2020, co-developer of a metaverse & NFT company with over 600,000 users.

In short, Dirc Zahlmann is not just an entrepreneur – he is a luminary in the field of sales, blockchain and digital financial infrastructure.

DAO1 – The Future of Finance & Global Sales

With DAO1, Dirc Zahlmann is realizing his boldest vision: A platform that combines crypto, DeFi, trading & network marketing – without central control, transparently and accessible to all.

 DAO1 is not just a crypto platform – it's the next-generation financial ecosystem.

- Fully decentralized organization (DAO) – no company or individual has control, everything runs through smart contracts.
- A bridge between regulated banks and the decentralized crypto world – maximum security & compliance with limitless possibilities.
- A global sales model that enables every participant to participate in the success of the ecosystem and earn money.
- Goal: Generate over $1 billion in annual revenue with DAO1.
- Expansion into the top 5 of the world's largest network marketing companies.

DAO1 – The most powerful tools for a billion-dollar ecosystem

DAO1 combines the highest blockchain technology with the most powerful financial tools of the future:

-  Sniper Bot – Automated trading of meme coins using AI-powered strategies.
-  Market Analyze Bot – High-precision crypto portfolio analysis for strategic investments.
-  APT Mining – The native blockchain token that serves as a gas fairy for transactions and is deflationary due to burning.
-  Crypto Banking & Exchanges – A bridge between the fiat & DeFi world, through collaborations with regulated banks & financial service providers.
-  Sales and income model that allows anyone to build a passive income through DeFi & Blockchain.

DAO1 will not only provide a home for investors and traders – but will also build a community that makes crypto accessible to the masses.

Where is the journey going?

-  Smart contract-driven platform that operates completely autonomously – without a central authority.
-  Close integration with regulated banks – for maximum credibility and compliance.
-  Expansion to global crypto exchanges, with regular APT listings.
-  Integration of third-party projects, especially from Gaming & Fintech, to further grow the DAO1 ecosystem.
-  Creation of the largest community-driven financial platform in the world, with 800,000 active channel partners & over 4 million customers worldwide.
